ST. James's, June 15. The following Addreſſes have been preſented to His Majeſty.

An humble Addreſs of Walter Hambleton, Eſq; Captain-General and Chief Governour in and over all his Majeſty's Leeward Charibbee Iſlands in America, and of the Lieutenant-Governour, Council and Aſſembly of His Majeſty's Iſland of Nevis. Alſo an humble Addreſs of Daniel Smith, Eſq; the Lieutenant-Governour, Council and Aſſembly of the ſaid Iſland of Nevis. Preſented to His Majeſty by Joſeph Jory, Eſq; Agent for the ſaid Iſlands, introduced by the Right Honourable James Stanhope, Eſq; one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bayliffs, Common-Council, Clergy, Gentlemen, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Corporation of Bedford. Preſented to His Majeſty by William Farrer, Eſq; one of the Members of Parliament for the ſaid Town, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Kent, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Bedford.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, High-Steward, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen, Chamberlain, Aſſiſtants and Common-Council of the Borough of Colcheſter, in the County of Eſſex. Preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Iſaac Rebow, High-Steward, and Richard Du Cane, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Mancheſter.

All which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Venice, May 29. An Engliſh Ship lately come from Zant reports, that Signor Andrea Piſani was under ſail towards the Archipelago, with a Fleet of 18 Men of War, and 2 Fireſhips. The Senate has reſolved to chuſe 4 Citizens, and admit them into the Body of the Nobility; but they are to pay each 100000 Ducats for that Honour. 1400 Men were embarked here laſt Week, and ſent to ſtrengthen our Forces in Corfu and Dalmatia. The 25th Signor Pietro Emi made his Entry in Quality of Procurator of St. Mark. Letters from Rome of the 23d ſay, that the Miſeries continued in the Eccleſiaſtical State, and that tho' ſeveral thouſand Meaſures of Corn had been lately bought up in the Kingdom of Naples, yet there was not enough to keep many poor People from ſtarving, unleſs the Rains, which began to fall, ſhould make the Herbs grow, and help to nouriſh them till the Harveſt comes.

Ratisbon, June 11. The Dyet has not been aſſembled ſince the 8th, the Miniſters here not being thoroughly inſtructed to proceed on the two moſt material Points that are at preſent lying before them, that is, The Aſſiſtance which the Emperor deſires againſt the Turks; and, Their coming to ſome Reſolution concerning the Affairs of the North. We hear that the Duke of Wolfembuttel is come to the Court of Saxe Gotha, and it is thought he will proceed from thence to Heſſe Caſſel. This Journey occaſions ſeveral Conjectures; but it is generally judged, that it relates to the concerting a Plan, with regard to the Conduct of the Princes of the Empire, in the Buſineſs of the North. M. Gergy, the French Miniſter, having ſtayed ſome Days at the Court of Wirtemberg, to execute a Commiſſion there, is gone from thence to Munich, and will now be here in a very ſhort Time. Advices from Vienna of the 7th, ſpeak with as much Uncertainty as ever of the Rupture with the Port. There was not the leaſt News yet concerning M. Fleiſchman's Courier, and Matters continued ſtill in a peaceable and neighbourly manner on the Frontiers. Count Palfy is to have the chief Command of the Imperial Army in Hungary, till the Arrival of Prince Eugene. Count Caunitz was to ſet out from Vienna the 7th, being appointed to go to the ſeveral Courts of the Empire, to ſollicit Succours againſt the Turks.

Copenhagen, June 13. We have had no Poſt, nor any certain Accounts from Norway for ſome Time, which cauſes a little Impatience here. The Prames which lately returned hither from Pomerania, are going to be ſent to that Kingdom: There are different Reports concerning the Uſe they are deſigned for, the firſt was, that the Swediſh Flotilla could not be attacked without them, but ſome ſay the Intention is to ruin, by their Aſſiſtance, the Bridge which the Swedes maintain over the Swinſund; others think they are neceſſary for conveying Proviſions to Frederickſtadt, which is ſaid to be inveſted in ſuch a Manner, that unleſs a Supply of Victuals and other Things neceſſary can be carried in, there is ſome danger of that Place's falling into the Hands of the Swedes. The Preparations go on here for putting in Execution the Project of making a Deſcent in Schonen; the Muſcovite Troops to be employed in this Expedition, are expected to come hither by Sea from Roſtock. The Diſ-

Diſcourſe continues that his Czariſh Majeſty intends to be here to command the Deſcent, which ſome imagine may be attempted towards the middle of Auguſt next. The King came hither Yeſterday, and the Britiſh Admiral, Sir John Norris, is expected in Town this Evening, in order to wait on his Majeſty. The Britiſh Squadron lies ſtill with the Merchant-Men in the Sound.

Bruſſels, June 17. Count Konigſegg, the Imperial Miniſter, has received Orders from Vienna to diſpoſe of the vacant Places of Counſellors in the Councils of Brabant and Mechlin, and to apply the Money ariſing from thence to the Payment of the Regiments of Aremberg and Deveniſh, which are not aſſigned on any Province for their Pay, but depend on the Caſualties. That Miniſter has delivered into the Council of Finances two Imperial Decrees, one ordering the Confiſcation of the Eſtates of all the Subjects of the Auſtrian Netherlands, who ſtill continue in the Service of Spain; and the other directing an exact Liſt to be made out and tranſmitted to Vienna, of the Names of all thoſe who are now in Poſſeſſion of any Employments, Dignities or Titles of Honour, conferred on them by the Elector of Bavaria, or the Court of Madrid. Our laſt Letters from Vienna adviſe, that the Marquis de Prié had put off his Departure from thence for the Hague to the 20th Inſtant; the Intendant of his Houſhold is arrived in this Town, and is about hiring the Hotel of Egmont, and another large Houſe adjoining to it, in order to have them furniſhed againſt the Marquis's Arrival. The Duke of Norfolk and his Dutcheſs arrived here laſt Night, and deſign to go in a few Days to the Spa, for the Benefit of the Waters.

This is to give Notice, That a Letter dated the 8th of June 1716. ſigned J. O. and ſent to the Honourable Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms in Lombard-Street, London, is come to Hand; and that if the Perſon that wrote it, will come any Morning to the Poſt-Maſter-General, at the General Poſt-Office in Lombard-Street, he will be heard in the Subject of the ſaid Letter.

Whereas in the Gazettes of the 2d and 9th Inſtant, the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms gave Notice, That they would receive Propoſals on, or before, the 15th Inſtant, for furniſhing the Cuſtom-Houſe with Stationary Wares for a Year certain, according to the ſeveral Samples which may be ſeen at their Secretary's Office in the Cuſtom-Houſe in Fenchurch-ſtreet; the Commiſſioners have thought proper to enlarge the ſaid Time to Friday the 22d Inſtant; the ſaid Propoſals to be ſealed up, directed to the Commiſſioners, but not to be opened till the ſaid 22d Inſtant.

The Court of Directors of the South Sea Company give Notice, That the Tranſfer Books of the ſaid Company will be ſhut on Saturday the 23d Inſtant, in order to the Dividend of 6 per Cent. in Stock, purſuant to the Reſolution of the General Court of May 18. and open'd on Thurſday the 2d of Auguſt next: And they further give Notice, That all Perſons poſſeſſed of any of the Company's Bonds, which fall due on or before the 1ſt of Auguſt next, may have their Money for the ſame from Time to Time as they fall due, from which Times reſpectively, the Intereſt on the ſaid Bonds will ceaſe and determine.
